Translations

Verbum caro factum est
And the Word was made flesh, for the salvation of us all.

And the Virgin spoke to Him:
Life of my life,
My son, what shall I do,
having nothing in which to dress you?

O you the rich of this world, will you not give a swaddling cloth to Jesus, born amidst the beasts as you may behold?

O Virgo splendens
O Virgin, shining brightly,
on this high serrated mountain,
with splendid miracles all around,
where the believers from everywhere ascend, Ah, with your gentle loving eye behold those caught in the bonds of sin, that they not be vexed by the blows of hell but be called among the blessed by your prayer.

Stella splendens
Splendid star on the serrated mountain, with miracles shining like a sunbeam, hear the people.

From all around they rally, rejoicing, rich and poor, young and old,
they assemble here to see with their own eyes,
and return from it filled with grace.

Rulers and magnates of royal stirpes, the mighty of the world, having obtained indulgence for their sin, they cry out and beating their breast they kneel and cry here: Ave Maria.

Prelates and barons, famous counts,
all kinds of monks and priests, soldiers, merchants, citizens, sailors,
burgers and fishermen are recompensed here.

Dindirin, dindirin
Dingaring, Dingaring,
dingaringdong, dingaringding,

I got up one fine morning,
One morning over the meadow;
I met the nightingale
Singing beneath the branches
Dingaringding...

I met the nightingale
singing beneath the branches
-Nightingale, nightingale,
carry this message for me
Dingaringding...

Nightingale, nightingale,
carry this message for me:
tell my lover
that I am now married Dingaringding...

Pase el agoa
Cross over the water,
Juliet, my lady,
cross over the water.
Come to me

I went into an orchard three little roses I went to pick.
My Juliet, my lady,
cross over the water.
Come to me.
O Magnum Mysterium
O great mystery, and remarkable sacrament,
That animals witness the Lord born, laid in a manger.
O blessed Virgin, whose womb was deemed worthy
To carry our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia.

Serenísima una noche
A most serene night is made greater because of an infant.
On a crisp day in December, made auspicious by the stars in the sky, Step to the dance, and to the sun/son who is born by the grace of the true God.
Today everyone confesses their faith.

Amor con fortuna
Love allied with fate
Have turned against me.
I do not know what to say

I do not know what I want,
For I sought my own perdition;
I am my own deceiver,
Leading myself into death
And, being dead, I can have no hope
Of shedding my cares.
I do not know what to say.

Love pursues me
With the brutality of warfare.
By sea and by land
Ill fortune dogs my steps.
Who can set himself free
Where love casts his net?
I do not know what to say.

Treacherous fortune
Plays fickle tricks on me
And Love offers me hope
Which ever turns sour.
Never does hostile Fate
Look more kindly upon me.
I do not know what to say.

About the Ensembles

The ODU Collegium Musicum is a unique ensemble that brings together students and members of the community to study and perform early music from the Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque and Classical periods. A variety of instruments are used, including recorders, crumhorns, viols and guitars. The ensemble recently acquired a consort of Renaissance recorders handmade by Thomas Prescott. The ensemble gives concerts on campus each semester and performs elsewhere in the Hampton Roads region. In addition, the Collegium Musicum performs at the annual Department of Music Madrigal Banquet.

The ODU Madrigal Singers is a chamber vocal ensemble made up of music majors and students from other departments in the university. Singing music from around the world and from all time periods, the Madrigal Singers present performances in the fall and spring semesters. In early December, the Madrigal Banquets feature full-course Renaissance meals with costumes and lots of music. Each year, the banquets feature the food and music of a particular region.
