President’s Message

I want to thank Robert Worley for his fine efforts in editing ACJS Today. Inside this edition you will find a number of articles on the theme of “Emerging Topics in Corrections.” As an association, we have the privilege (and the responsibility) to identify issues in our field that should be addressed by various constituents. It is within this framework that I am proud to announce a new journal created by the Corrections section: Corrections: Policy, Practice, and Research. The journal will be published by Taylor and Francis. Thank you to Jeff Bouffard and Dave May for their efforts in creating this new journal. As you think about where to send your future articles, please keep the new journal and ACJS Today in mind.

Brian K. Payne received his PhD in Criminology from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1993. He is currently the vice provost for graduate and undergraduate academic programs at Old Dominion University, where he is tenured in the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice. He is a former editor of the American Journal of Criminal Justice and past president of the Southern Criminal Justice Association. Payne is the author or co-author of more than 160 journal articles and seven books including White-Collar Crime: The Essentials (Sage), Family Violence and Criminal Justice (Elsevier, with Randy Gainey), and Crime and Elder Abuse: An Integrated Perspective (Charles C Thomas). He is currently co-authoring (with Will Oliver and Nancy Marion) Introduction to Criminal Justice: A Balanced Approach (Sage).
