American Society of Mechanical Engineers

ASME's goal at Old Dominion University is to foster interaction between students and professional engineers so that students can better understand what mechanical engineering is about.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2000, AND BEST OF LUCK IN YOUR FUTURES!!!

Mission Statement

We envision the Student Senate as providing official channels through which students’ opinions and concerns may be reliably voiced and recognized. Our intention is to ensure the welfare of each student’s educational experience. We give all our efforts to achieve the best for each student who attends Old Dominion University, and will continue to do so for as long as this University is established.

Become a part of the Pride!

The Old Dominion University Alumni Association

“Forming Ties that Bind through Involvement, Partnership, Visibility, Volunteerism and a Commitment to Excellence.”

Pride n A company of lions
Pride n A feeling of gratification from an association with something that is good and laudable. Vigorous and spirited
Pride n A gathering of the Old Dominion University family

You are the Pride of Old Dominion. More than 72,000 strong, the Old Dominion University Alumni Association is a world of opportunities just waiting to be explored. Whether your interests lie in helping Old Dominion to recruit the best and brightest students, serving as a career mentor or internship site for today’s students or you simply want to help plan activities in your area, we have just the program for you. Where we once called our alumni groups chapters, today we say Pride. It represents an organization that stands tall in its support and partnership with its alma mater.

Give our office a call at (757) 683-3097 or toll free at (888) ODU-3435 or e-mail us at alumni@odu.edu and we’ll tell you all about our program. If you have a few minutes, you may want to check out our new web site at www.odu.edu/-alumni for more information. Get involved in the Pride that is Old Dominion!

(196) Colophon
The 2000 edition of The Laureate, (Un)defined, was printed by Herff Jones Printing and Publishing Company, in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania with a press run of 400 books.

The book was printed of 100 pound bordeaux paper, trimmed to 9 x 12 inches. The prepress design was done on one Apple Power Macintosh 7500/100 series of computer using Adobe Pagemaker 6.5.

Body copy was 13pt. AGarmond, captions were 10pt. AGarmond. Other fonts were used.

Undergraduate photos were taken by Strawbridge Studios of Durham, North Carolina. Special thanks to them for cooperating with us and coming back after the hurricane.

Any quoted opinions are not necessarily the opinions of faculty or Laureate staff. Due to deadlines some information was not able to be included in this publication. Permission is required from Old Dominion University Publications or The Laureate staff for reproduction of any part of this book.
Last Look
Ok, So we have finally reached the end of the book and the end of the year. Putting this book together took a lot of hard work and caused a lot of stress. We finished it though and we hope you enjoy flipping through and reading the final product. We are the yearbook. We photograph, write, design, market, edit everything for you and about you. Thank you ODU for this opportunity and we wish you all the best in the new millenium. Long live the Laureate and long live the Monarchs.
