Professor David Walker has been on the faculty of ODU since 1999. He is Director of Percussion Studies, Drumline Instructor for the Marching Band, and teaches Undergraduate Instrumental Conducting. He regularly performs with the Virginia Symphony and is Percussion Instructor for the Governor’s School for the Arts. In the past he has co taught the Old Dominion University New Music Ensemble, as well as founded and directed the percussion group Stick People. Mr. Walker also directed the Old Dominion University Summer Percussion Camp for 11 years. He received a Bachelor of Performance degree from Wheaton Conservatory of Music and a Master of Music Performance from The University of Michigan. He, his wife Christy, and their eight children—Matthew, Christopher, Emily, Michael, Bethany, Jeremiah, Mary, and Rebekah—reside in Windsor, VA.
