

About the Directors

John Toomey is the chairman of the Music Department at Old Dominion University located in Norfolk, Virginia. He has toured with trumpet legend Maynard Ferguson, as well as vocalists Mark Murphy and Rene Marie. Professor Toomey recorded two CDs with Ferguson entitled "High Voltage 2" and "Big Bop Nouveau", and is also featured on the Max Jazz release "Rene Marie: Live at the Jazz Standard". He has performed in Switzerland, Germany, Portugal, England, Japan, the Bahamas, and the Dominican Republic. The USIA designated Professor Toomey a cultural specialist in jazz, and he has traveled to Botswana, Africa to teach and perform in that capacity. He has written soundtracks for the History Channel, the Discovery Channel, and NBC. His most recent release "Refraction" features his trio performing all original compositions, and can be purchased from CD Baby. Professor Toomey has been named the TELETECHNET Professor of the Year, has been designated a University Professor for Excellence in Teaching, and is a recipient of the SCHEV Award for Excellence in Teaching

Keith Philbrick is an active woodwind performer and educator in the Tidewater area. In addition to his positions at Old Dominion University, Mr. Philbrick performs with the jazz group Skylark, the Roy Muth Big Band, the American Saxophone Quartet, Virginia Symphony, Broadway at Chrysler Hall, Virginia Musical Theater, and many national touring acts. He also coordinates the jazz department at the Governor's School for the Arts and is the director of the band at KEYS Academy. A retired First Sergeant from the U.S. Army, Mr. Philbrick served twenty-six years in Army Bands as a leader, performer, and instructor including tours of duty at the Navy School of Music, the U.S. Army Europe Band and Chorus, the NATO Band, and The U.S. Continental Army Band. Professor Philbrick is a graduate of Oral Roberts University, the Armed Forces School of Music, and Old Dominion University.
